Actions You Can Take

- Companies:
  - Assess how cybersecurity regulations impact your compliance, operations & risk posture
  - Develop recommendations - working with your legal, compliance, and cybersecurity teams - identifying regulatory pain points and opportunities to simplify and better align regulatory requirements
- Governments:
  - Engage with industry to assess how to better align and simplify cybersecurity regulations to maximize effective operational cyber defense
  - Engage with other governments and regulators to assess opportunities to better align cybersecurity regulations moving forward and develop reciprocity agreements and frameworks for existing requirements
